2019-2020 Highlights

AWG 2020

---

Sports Hosting

We supported and got ready to host the games in Whitehorse, with Indoor Archery first apparition in the AWG in addition our usual sports of Dene Games and Arctic.

Arctic Sports Chairs:

- Ross King
- Marc Kopeck

Archery Chairs:

- Alan Hansen
- Gael Marchand

Dene Games Chairs:

- Rose Inglangasuk
- Heidi Bob
- Kara Lepine

Unfortunately, games were canceled but it left us with a lot of assets both in staff and on human resources for host further competitions in these 3 sports.

Aboriginal inclusion in AWG

We had several meetings with the host society to try improving visibility, inclusion and trying to set up some positive return to the FN communities in the spirit of TRC Calls to action.

AWG Teams

Team coach and athletes' selections were conducted:

	Archery	Arctic Sports	Dene Games
Trials Dates	December 15 th	November 30 th	December 7 th
Team Selection #	8 athletes + 3 alternates	13 athletes	16 athletes + 6 alternates

NAIG 2020 TEAM YUKON

- Rose Inglangasuk, NAIG 2020 Chef de mission, worked at staff selection.
- Tenders for uniforms went out, travels booked (Air North charter mostly) and budgeting for the game was done.
- Tryouts were conducted for Archery, Volleyball, Softball, Golf, Basketball and Swimming

Unfortunately, games were postponed to 2021.

Sport for Social Development in Indigenous Communities (SSDIC)

This new funding stream started this year and allowed us to invest in new program development (Archery this year) and to increase our visits and program offering to Yukon Rural communities.

This program will be continuing for the next 5 years and YASC will be developing more and more programs for rural Yukon.
